From Diane & Jeffrey Phillips

ISSUE # 39, May 2011 - July 2011

Hello Everyone

In the last newsletter, I mentioned that Jeffrey and I were going to start traveling periodically. At that time, we were more interested in a class c until we walked around in several of them and realized they did not have the room we wanted. So, we started searching for a travel trailer that had bunks or an expandable for when we had the grandkids with a possible slide so we would not be stepping over each other, especially since our furry kids would be traveling with us. What we expected turned out to be a 360 degree change from what we thought we were going to get and the outcome was a whole lot more than anticipated. All the planning could not have brought us into a more perfect resolution than what we were handed. Between online searching and walking into these places as well as the RV show we still had not found that one that spoke to us until recently. When we walked into this trailer...we were home. We are still amazed at how Spirit works in our lives and how easily everything fell into place when we got out of our own way. The bottom line is, "When we put ourselves first the trailer showed up with the perfect layout, colors, weight and a substantial amount off the price". Not only that, it will do everything we intend to use it for!!!

We are very excited about our month long trip in July. We will be on a 2800 mile round trip from California, to Oregon, to Washington and back home. Our daughter is having a baby beginning of July and our son is getting married the 3rd week in July. Plus in between we will be visiting friends and having a family reunion. If I choose to do a few phone sessions while we are traveling I will update my answering machine on Sunday's to reflect the days and times that I am available. In our next newsletter we will have plenty of pictures to share and more and likely stories

Until next time, I hope your spring and summer offers abundance in all areas of your life and fun filled memories with family and friends

Much Love to You & Yours

Diane

The rebirthing process is in the crucial stages of its manifestations which are felt and seen planetary wide. The escalated turmoil within the earth as well as her inhabitants will exacerbate to its highest point since the fall of Rome. In mirroring your history, colossal events were set in motion as dictatorship supremacy oppressed autonomy. The crumbling of despot monarchy speaks of the rise to sovereignty in the will of the people as they unite throughout the land with common discourse.

The earth's restructuring has significance as prophesied by the Mayan Ancients. The prophecy spoke of the end of times as you know it and a simpler way of life emerging and yet many fear the earth will cease to exist. Life for the majority has become despondent and segregated. The exuberance of these shifts will create an integration of openness, compassion, and good will for one another. These cyclic events are completely natural and the appropriateness of timing assists in the overall evolutionary processes.

Your body's eco system is affected by the earth's restructuring and it is important to familiarize yourself with its needs physically and also the balance it requires to remain in a state of emotional harmony. The bodies are very resilient and will continue to function with great accuracy as long as you pay attention to what it seeks. As we have mentioned in previous writings healthy immunity will require additional nurturing and your digestive tract can be soothed by eating small portions throughout the day

Disruption in technology will propagate as unrest strengthens within countries attempting to assume control as well as geographic signatures altering satellite frequencies. It is a benefit to manually backup information that you wish safe guarded.

In closing, you are revered for choosing to inhabit the planet during these sublime events. You are witnessing what is known as "The Deliverance".

We wish your heart and mind peace and faith on the path of deliverance

Jeffrey's 2 Cents

Deep thoughts from a shallow mind.

So we started our search for the perfect trailer; one that would meet all our needs.

It had to be light...

no...

maybe a Sport model,

No...

or something green...

No!

Tadaa!

We found it, the Phillips Porta-Palace. Future home away from home for us and the 3 Amigos (see below). Now if I can just get it up the mountain with my little Xterra??? We'll keep ya posted.

As a high school classmate commented on this photo when I posted it on face book, this is why they call it "FUR-niture".

We call them the 3 Amigos, or 3 Stooges, just depends on their mood at the moment.

So the question is: when we get these guys on the road, will it be "Blue Shadows on the Trail" or "Kook's Tour"?

STAY TUNED!

Go online to you-tube or google 3 Amigos- Blue Shadows, for a cute musical clip.
