ISSUE # 42, FEB 2012—APR 2012

Hello Everyone

We are still waiting on winter weather here in Tehachapi, CA, although I suspect it is a little slow at arriving. I was telling my husband last year that it is going to be a hard winter because of the behavior of wild animals, birds and even the bugs. Some parts of the country are having quite severe weather while others are fairly mild which explains the earth's cyclic behavior that Serione' talks about. The cycles are also a part of what people fear with the so called "2012 end of the world – Apocalypse". People fear what they do not understand and the more animated they become the more real it is.

An example of this was when I lived in North Carolina. I was working at the cash register in the herb store checking people out. It was in the winter time right before the Y2K events that were supposedly going to happen in January. While people were waiting in line to check out the subject of conversation was about Y2K. This particular lady said that she purchased a couple of guns and had 1 year of food stored up. She said that she would shoot anyone who would attempt to steal her food. She also expressed that she was a Christian and her faith was strong. I asked her, "if someone comes to your door and is truly cold and hungry would you feed them and give them something warm to wear?" Her answer was, "NO and if they try to come in I will shoot them!!!" There was no hesitation what so ever in her answer. The issue was not that she had stored food for a year or that she owned guns. The real issue was that her fear took over and her reasoning skills were unstable. She truly believed and was quite amped up that her and her family was in danger. Y2K was mild in comparison to the fear associated to this so called year end apocalypse. How I personally look at this is that the world will continue to exist. Fear will escalate because of the earth changes that are occurring as well as people feeding words of fear. Staying neutral and seeing all of this for what it truly is can be likened to an ember versus a fire out of control. It is going to be a fantastic year filled with adventure and I welcome the growth.

Lots of Love and Blessings to You

With much to toil, and benefit from in this year of duality and adversity, your manifestations will be immediate and many. Choices based on ego will bring struggle with opportunities for balance. Choices based on intuitive will bring clarity with ample fortuities. The mirror of cause and effect advocates ones intentions and represents self reflection.

As your political houses attempt to sway the masses with benign speeches, solvency will triumph over disreputable supremacy. The emotional fury will run rampant in the midst of delusional turmoil expanding societal aggravation and fear. As we have said previously, "To stand independent during these times of radical hypocrisy is to rise above societal fear as the truth unravels. Be the advocate for what you believe in your heart not what is strewn out of naivety or hidden agendas". Remember, it is a year of truth based on ones intentions. Those who choose to look beyond the illusion and see truth will systematically change the dynamics of how nations are governed.

As the earth continues her cyclic ascent with masterful perfection unusual bacterial and viral anomalies will occur. Scientific study will be significant in developing cures for current diseases unbeknownst to the scientist during the initial stages. Through varied trials related to the onslaught of these anomalies the realization of new discoveries will become evident.

During the escalation of these cyclic events your immunity is compromised and it is imperative to build the stability of this vital system. The cycles are similar to that of your 17th century and yet many are ambivalent as recorded history does not simulate identical behavior. Recorded history does not give exact replication nor will future likeness be unequivocally matched. As your planet evolves so does the face of her experiences as you are all a part of the whole which contribute to the factors that accompany this magnificent transformation.

To obtain a foundation of light heartedness in the midst of adversity; Ignite that spark of playfulness in all that you do, enjoy a sense of fulfillment with the creative ability that is innately yours and be willing to just be.

We Wish You Balance, Peace and Clarity

“There often seems to be a playfulness to wise people, as if either their equanimity has as its source this playfulness or the playfulness flows from the equanimity; and they can persuade other people who are in a state of agitation to calm down and manage a smile.”

~Edward Hoagland
