Welcome

FROM DIANE

Hope you all are having a fantastic summer!!!

Jeffrey and I just recently went to Montana to the wedding of my brother, Roger and his bride, Kelly. It was the first time meeting Kelly and we were thrilled and definitely happy she is a part of our family. Family and friends that I had not seen in a long time were there...in some cases 34 years and longer. Also, we gained many more family members with the addition of Kelly and her kin.

Uncle Ted, who reminds me of my Dad, attended the wedding and it was a wonderful, heartfelt reunion. I learned a lot about my father during his growing up years which helped me to put some unresolved issues to bed. I felt like my Dad and I understood each other in our own way; although there were voids emotionally. Talking with Uncle Ted filled these voids and gave me peace.

We were very fortunate to see my sister, Marla and her husband, Kim on this trip and although it was short it was filled with love and tenderness. Kim is going through some intense health issues and prayers are welcomed and appreciated if you feel driven to do so.

Our trip was cut short by a couple of days due to my husband's health. Heart issues run in his family and we became aware of Jeffrey's 8 years ago.

On August 1st a pacemaker was installed and it was a saving grace for Jeffrey to live a life of quality again. He is now on the mend and doing so much better than he has in years. Thank-you, Thank-you, Thank-you!!!

In closing, Jeffrey and I wish you fun-filled adventures, excellent health and eternal peace.

With Love,

Diane

As the gravity pull and magnetic fields of the earth intensify, unrest escalates as the majority is feeling the anxiety of these opposing forces. Manifestations accelerate and what you give energy to, and how you give it, has an overall impact on your life. The stronger your attachment is to any given situation or person the greater the mirror effect, for a deeper reflection of where the truth lies regardless of perception. To simplify, be aware of the moment you reside in, for clarity of a desired outcome.

Stagnancy leads to movement and many are suffering non-action. You always have choice regardless of what the analytical mind will have you believe. Be willing to see all sides to the situation in which you twirl on and open up the mind to be all inclusive. Every situation has more than one resolution and the greatest one is how you perceive it. A closed mind builds insurmountable obstacles whereas an open mind flows around perceived obstacles. Set a course of action and we will provide the ways and means. All it requires from you is patience and perseverance as the path unfolds.

As we have mentioned in previous writings some of the waters are bacterial laden and this is increasing. It affects the body's immune and central nervous systems. Keep your immunity built up through different means of support, for the proper function of internal organs as well as the nervous system and replenish good bacterial. The physical vehicle is strong and has a high tolerance and endurance level as long as the immune, emotions and central nervous system are balanced. These areas will feed or take away from internal health.

*We Wish For You Perseverance, Patience and Clarity of the Path Less Traveled,

My 2 Cents

When the wedding pictures contains any of the following...

you might be at a country wedding!

We traveled through beautiful places to be with people we love, stayed in a beautiful cabin and witnessed the union of two families. Like the Navaho Proverb: "...everywhere I go I walk in Beauty" this trip was just such a blessing, made so by all the friends and family we saw and played and sang with. Thanks Roger and Kelly for sharing this time with us.
